17 May 2024

Migrating a static website to the powerful Strapi CMS

Overview

Our client is a major software solutions company with their expertise specifically in Sitecore development.

Case Study Summary

The client was looking for complete migration of their static website to the Strapi CMS along with enhancements in page loading speed, website performance, and features and functionality for the content updating process.

Client Requirements

The client was looking for a complete transformation of their website in terms of rebranding the website and migrating to Strapi CMS to make it easier to make quick and multiple modifications to the website.

- Website migration to Strapi CMS

- Page loading speed to be increased

- SEO enhancements for improved performance

Solution Highlights

- Migrated the website completely to Strapi CMS

- Improved website performance and page loading speed

- Transformed website from HTML to Nodejs